POLITICS IN KOOLAUMinutes Under Poi-- Dogs Create a Diversion.

Down at Hauula by the sea, where the natives do nothing and are happy and the sun is brighter and the surf a little whiter than anywhere else, politics is booming, even as in the metropolis.

On Wednesday the Republicans from Kahuku to Kaawawa got together for the purpose of ascertaining the trend of public feeling in such matters as choice of sheriff, supervisor and representative.

The gathering took place in the courthouse and after all visible signs of child had been shooed from the premises, Chairman Kaanaana called the meeting to order.

"The secretary will kindly read the minutes of the last meeting," said the chair.

Secretary Ben Poepeo hunted for the minutes but failed to find them. Investigation elicited the fact that the missing minutes had been placed in a poi bowl for safe keeping. One wahine said, on being questioned, that she thought that the needed notes might somehow or other have got under the poi in the bowl. Another native remembered having seen the minutes in the bowl. He remembered seeing them because he wanted to write a letter and being short of note paper, tore a piece off the paper whereon the transactions at the last meeting were inscribed.

The meeting proceeded after a while, minutesless.

The question of Brown for Sheriff was next discussed. Brown seems to be going great guns down in the okole-hao belt; for the meeting was almost unanimously for him.

At this point the meeting was interrupted by the earnest expulsion of several dogs from the room, which had apparently been recently engaged in digging up a dead horse. It is a curious thing that the odoriferous canines joined the meeting just when the brown canvass was going on.

The Rev. Nuuhwa, clad in the everyday clothes of the worker in the taro-patch, was called upon for a few words. He said:

"I'm not a politician. I'm a worker in the vineyard. My politics are love and goodness, sweetness and light. I hear you talking about Brown. I see that you are all for Brown. Even if I'm not for Brown what good is it for one poor man to try and knock him down?"

The Sheriff having been elected, the attention of the meeting was turned to the discussion of suitable candidates for supervisor and representative.

Ben Poepeo had the pull for representative, his only opponent being Kahlonia.

There were a number of candidates for supervisory honors. D. W. Watson and C. W. Bridges were the favorites, with S. W. Logan close behind. The latter is the policeman at Laie. Dave Watson is a lawyer of Kaneohe and sometimes Kahana, and Bridges is a carpenter, mechanic and jack-of-all-trades.

Tomorrow a ballot box is to be circulated between Kahuku and Kaawawa and the vote of the people taken to ascertain who they feel should represent the enlightened district of Koolaula in the honorable capacities of supervisor and member of the lower house.

The delegates to the Republican convention will be advised of the preliminary balloting and will act accordingly.

GAINED 34 POUNDS

PERSISTENT ANAEMIA CURED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Doctor Recommended Them After Other Remedies Failed and Patient Recovered.

"When I begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills," says Mrs. Nathaniel Field, of St. Albans, Somerset county, Maine, "I was the palest, most bloodless person you could imagine. My tongue and gums were colorless and my fingers and ears were like wax. I had two doctors and they pronounced my trouble anaemia. I think the disease had been coming on for three years. I was in bed most of the time for two months, July and August, 1905, only sitting up to have my bed made and to rest my back. I had spells of vomiting, could not eat, in fact, did not dare to, I had such distress after eating. My stomach was filled with gas which caused me awful agony.

"The backache I suffered was at times almost unbearable and the least exertion made my heart beat so fast that I could hardly breathe. But the worst of all was the splitting neuralgia headache which never left me for seven weeks.

"About the last of August Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended to me by Dr. J. H. Murphy, of Dexter, Me., and I gave them a trial. About this time I had had several numbing spells. My limbs would be cold and without any feeling and the most deadly sensations would come over me.

"Nothing had helped me until I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, in fact, I had grown worse every day. After I had taken the pills a short time I could see that they were benefiting me and one morning I awoke entirely free from pain. The distress after eating disappeared and in three weeks I could eat anything I wanted and suffer no inconvenience. I also slept soundly. I have taken several boxes of the pills and have gained in weight from 120 to 154 pounds and am perfectly well now."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure anaemia and all anaemia conditions because they actually make new blood. For rheumatism, indigestion, nervous headaches, many forms of weakness and debility Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are recommended even if ordinary remedies have been tried without relief.

These pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
